DAY 1

Early pick up at your house or hotel or in Dar es Salaam in Dar and departure to Mikumi ▪ Quick lunch en route (not included) ▪ Afternoon game drive in Mikumi National Park ▪ Check-in and dinner in Angalia Tented Camp

Mikumi is the fourth National Park in Tanzania in terms of size and its savannah landscape dotted with acacias, baobabs, tamarinds and palms is often compared with the Serengeti plains. It is easy to see elephants, zebras, hippos, crocodiles, giraffes, antelopes, buffalos, big cats such as lions and leopards, reptiles and a variety of birds.

DAY 2

Breakfast ▪ Full day excursion in Udzungwa Mountains National Park (Sanje Falls) ▪ Picnic lunch at the National Park ▪ Swim in the crystal water natural pools (don't forget the bathing suit!) ▪ Drive back to Angalia Tented Camp for dinner and overnight.

The rain forest of Udzungwa Mountains (Sanje Falls) is the second most bio diverse national park in Africa. Udzungwa is part of a chain of mountains called the Eastern Arc, also known as the African Galapagos for the great variety of endemic species that it treasures. Its forest is exuberant and magical, with trees over 30 meters high interlaced with lichens, mosses and ferns, barely letting in the sunshine. A paradise for hikers.

DAY 3

Early breakfast and depart to Mikumi National Park for a game drive ▪ Picnic lunch at the National Park and transfer to your hotel in Dar es Salaam.
